PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Media & content strategist with 10+ years of experience in art, culture, and creative industries. Former Senior Reporter at Sanlian Lifeweek, specializing in translating complex cultural and social issues into structured, cross-platform narratives with large-scale public impact.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Reporter, Art & Culture | Sanlian Lifeweek Magazine

Apr 2019 – Jun 2025

- Reported on China's cultural landscape across art, technology, and creative industries, covering contemporary art, museum innovation, cultural heritage, the art market, and emerging intersections between culture and technology.
- Worked cross-functionally with designers, video producers, and PR teams to align editorial storytelling with brand positioning and audience insight.
- Mentored junior writers on narrative structure, cultural sensitivity, and persuasive storytelling.

Key Projects

1. Xiao Zhan Incident & Fan Culture Series

- Reframed a high-risk celebrity controversy into a socio-cultural inquiry on fan culture, shifting public discussion from gossip to structural analysis.
- Designed a multi-layer content structure combining long-form reporting, academic dialogue, and short-form video, becoming Sanlian's highest-performing early digital project with 10M+ interactions.

2. Global Intellectual Collaboration Series (Post-Pandemic)

- Initiated a post-pandemic thought series with global thinkers including Yuval Noah Harari and Slavoj Žižek, leading topic framing and bilingual editorial adaptation for Chinese audiences.

Editor | The Art Newspaper China

Sep 2017 – Nov 2018

- Developed research-driven coverage of the global art ecosystem, interviewing leaders from institutions such as Tate Modern and the Uffizi Galleries, while leading the Art & Tech series on intersections between art, technology, and digital innovation.
- Supported digital promotion and selected offline events in collaboration with marketing teams.

Digital Editor | Songguo Life (Sanlian Lifeweek Co.)

Nov 2016 - Jul 2017

- Executed content operations for WeChat and Weibo, contributing to audience growth from 10K→120K and 40K→80K.
- Established partnerships with 100+ media outlets and KOLs, onboarding nearly 50 publishers to the Songguo app platform to expand cultural content distribution.
- Supported integrated brand campaigns and cultural events—including SONOS “The Sound of Home,” China Eastern Airlines “Global Taste Tour,” Songguo Market, and LIFE+ Talks—covering online marketing, content promotion, and offline event execution.

Media Officer | China Philanthropy Research Institute, Beijing Normal University

Mar 2016 - Oct 2016

- Oversaw media content, project reporting, and communication materials for cultural and educational initiatives
- Supported planning and execution of large-scale international events—including Children’s Museum Night and the China-US Children’s Education Forum—with a combined audience reach of 20M+ across online and offline channels.

Independent Narrative & Digital Project | 2025

- Led an independent storytelling experiment, Chasing Butterflies with Wenhao, exploring nature, travel, and everyday aesthetics through digital narrative and community engagement.
- Developed content strategy and creative direction across major platforms, achieving 5M+ organic reach on selected stories.
- Collaborated selectively with cultural and editorial partners including National Geographic China, People’s Posts and Telecommunications Press, Douyin Science, and She’s Jewelry.

Freelance Cultural Writer / Researcher

2013 - Present

- Contributor for GQ, T Magazine China, Modern Weekly, ELLEMEN, Harper’s Bazaar Art, and commercial clients such as Aranya Real Estate.
- Photography projects covering portraits, events, and still life; taught local photography workshops.
